When the Fifteenth legislative assembly convened at Prescott Cuddy, thinking it an opportunity to reclaim some of the law-makers, solicited the appointment of Chaplain and was chosen. He soon found it a hopeless task to impress religion on the average Arizona lawmaker, and in a spirit of holy disgust informed them that they were on an express train running at lighting speed to the devil. For his candor he was deposed, and has since been preaching for salvation for that hard-he-arted body. So earnest is he in his efforts to save these unregenerate men, boon companions of his unregenerate men, boon companions of his friends try to induce him to let up, but he persists with the enthusiasm of a saint to supplicate the Heavenly Throne in their behalf.

A few days ago Cuddy baptized a few converts, and is proportionately happy.

Agony is Courted By persons who, attacked by a mild form of rheumatism, neglect to seek prompt relief. Subsequent torture is prevented by an immediate resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Slight exposure, an occasional draught, will beget this painful malady, where there is a predisposition to it in the blood. It is not difficult to arrest the trouble at the outset, but well nigh impossible to eradicate it when matured. No evidence in relation to this superb blood depurent is more positive than that which establishes its efficacy as a preventive and a remedy for rheumatism. Not only is it thorough, but safe, which the vegetable and mineral poisons, often taken as curatives of the disease, are not. Besides expelling the disease, are not. Besides expelling the rheumatic virus from the system, it over-comes fever and ague, biliousness, con-ti-
